

Don Ellingsworth Sensei is a Head Instructor and Founder of Aikido Chuseikan, and holds the rank of rokudan (sixth degree black belt), as recognized by the Aikido World Headquarter (Aikikai). He has been awarded the Ueshiba Juku designation by Saotome Shihan, and is authorized to wear Saotome Sensei's own "Ueshiba Juku" calligraphy on his professional uniforms. Literally "the Academy of the Founder", this indicates that Saotome Sensei recognized him for his loyalty and dedication to promoting O Sensei's vision, and that he is not only a true Deshi of Saotome Sensei and an inheritor of his teachings, but is also part of O

Sensei's own school and pure lineage as only a true Uchi Deshi of O Sensei can recognize.

Julie "Jet" Tollen Sensei, began her Aikido training in 1999 and holds the rank of yondan (fourth degree black belt). Over her years of training both in the US and in Japan, Julie developed youth programs that she implemented in Philadelphia and in Tampa. Besides teaching basic adult classes at Chuseikan Dojo, Jet Sensei teaches at-risk youth in the Tampa area.

We are thrilled to offer the following seminar with Senseis Ellingsworth and Tollen.
